GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS (GDPR) 2018

On May 25, 2018 European Union's General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) came into effect and at Sri Sambodhi Community Development Foundation (SSCDF) we have to comply with these regulations. If you did not give your consent before 25 May 2018, to use your personal data that we have: names, e-mail addresses and in some cases bank account details (standing order payers), postal addresses and phone numbers, then we cannot use your data in the future as we have to delete them from our records.

We therefore need your personal data listed below and a fresh consent to store and use your data to communicate SSCDF activities to you and to be used for communications with statutory authorities, (e.g. Gift Aid) when necessary. We confirm that we will not use the data outside these purposes. We will take all necessary measures to ensure privacy and protection of your data. We also confirm that we will not share your data with third parties. You can withdraw your consent at any time by e-mailing: info@srisambodhi.org.uk. Your data will then be deleted from our records and the deletion will be confirmed to you by email without delay.

If you wish to provide your personal data so that we can keep you informed of SSCDF activities and as explained above, please complete the form below as applicable, and return it to us by e-mail (info@srisambodhi.org.uk) or by post (84 Dacre Road, London E13 0PR). You can also complete the form in person at the Vihara.

We will be able to contact you only if you give your data and consent that we can use your data for communicating SSCDF activities.
